A NOBLE SOUL PASSES TO HOME BEYOND THE SKIES AFTER MANY YEARS OF USEFUL SERVICE

Last Tuesday morning Mount Carmel Church was crowded to its doors with friends and admirers of Father John Sullivan. They had come from far and near to pay their last respects to the dead pastor who had breathed his last in St. Mary's hospital in San Francisco early Saturday morning last. The impressive ceremony of the Catholic Church and the solemnity of the occasion made the scene one long to be remembered. Hundreds crowded the aisles, many standing along the aisle. Before the commencement of the requiem mass at 10 o'clock every seat in the church was filled by sorrowing friends and relatives. Over sixty priests were in attendance, coming from all parts of the state. It was a solemn scene. For fourteen years Father Sullivan had labored for his church in Redwood City, during which time he made friends among all classes, Protestants as well as Catholics. By his religious zeal, intellectual force and eloquence in the pulpit Father Sullivan accomplished his undertakings and did much for his congregation. As a mark of respect to his memory all business was suspended during the funeral services. City and county officials and the pastors of all the other churches were present to pay their tribute to the dead priest.

The Right Rev. M. D. Connolly of St. Paul's Church, San Francisco; was the celebrant of the requiem high mass. Rev. John E. Cottle of St. Bridget's Church, San Francisco, was deacon; Rev. J. W. Brockhouse of Holy Cross Church, San Francisco, subdeacon, and Rev. J. W. Sullivan of Mission Dolores, San Francisco, was master of ceremonies. The seminary choir from St. Patrick's Seminary, under the direction of Rev. Father J. M. O'Connell, S. J., rendered beautiful music. The organist was Rev. R. B. Webster, S. S., from the seminary. Archbishop Hanna, who is in the east, was represented at the service by Right Rev. P. L. Ryan, V. G., who in his bright purple robe, the insignia of his high office in the church, added to the solemnity of the occasion.

The following are the names of the clergymen from the archdiocese who attended the mass: Very Rev. Timothy Murphy, S. J., Right Rev. Hugh Gallagher, S. J., Rev. Richard Gleason, S. J.

Father John E. Cottle, a classmate of the dead priest, paid a touching tribute to his friend. He was eloquent and in a voice filled with emotion closed by bidding his classmate a final farewell. When the eloquent priest had finished there was not a dry eye in the church. It was one of the most touching tributes ever heard in this city. Father Cottle spoke as follows:

"His Grace, the Most Reverend Archbishop, my brethren, has sent us a dispatch from Washington, where he now is, expressing is sympathy for the relatives and friends of the deceased and also for the members of the congregation, as well as to express his deep regret at the loss of one of his old and valuable priests."

One week morning in the early spring of 1872 I was assisting at mass in my parish church the Old Cathedral of San Francisco. The morning was bright and the sun shining through the sanctuary window cast its rays on the altar and celebrant. Turning to the congregation at the "Orate fratres" the celebrant asked their prayers. "Brethren," he said, "pray that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty." And the response came back from a child that served at the foot of the altar: "May the Lord receive the sacrifice from thy hands to praise and glory of his own name, for our benefit and also for that of all His Holy Church."

The priest, my brethren, to whom allude, was the late reverend Father Prandergrast, "the sacerdos magnus." The great priest who in his day pleased God and was found just. And the child that served his mass that morning was Father Sullivan, who after forty years in the ministry has followed him we trust to a better life.

As I looked upon his cold remains the memory of this incident in his childhood came back to me and wondered if it were not on this or some like occasion that he answered the Master's call and looked forward to the day when he also might stand at God's altar and offer up the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the living and the dead.

However that may be, I am certain that the exemplary life and wise counsel of Father Prandergrast had much to do with determining his vocation and it was with no small degree of satisfaction that in the autumn of 1874 he brought him to old St. Mary's College on the Mission road.

I believe that this first step toward the eternal priesthood was the crowning sacrifice in Father Sullivan's life, as I believe it is in the life of every boy that breaks with the world for the sake of Christ. For the future is painted in brilliant and il-lusive colors for the boy. The way to success in business and the various professions is open to him. To achieve distinction, to acquire wealth and enjoy the comfort and happiness consequent on these is possible for him as well as for others; for where others have succeeded why not he?

Time the experience may indeed prove the utter delusion of all this; but the boy does not see it in that light and when for the love and service of the Master he breaks with it all his sacrifice is supreme.

Nor do I believe that the Master easily forgets this first step. Rather does He cherish a fond remembrance of it and reserve for the boy who takes it a tender spot in His Sacred Heart forevermore.

And so as the future priest he entered St. Mary's College, where he lives in the traditions of the place as both studious and exemplary.

"He was his classmate, together with one who has long since fallen asleep. After completing his college course he entered the Grand Seminary of Montreal to pursue his theological studies. On the 18th of December, 1880, he with three others was ordained to the priesthood. They were the first that ever were ordained in that institution for this archdiocese. A sympathy born of the thought that we were all destined to labor in the same portion of Christ's vineyard grew up between us and waxed strong as the years rolled on; a sympathy that deepened into friendship which always found expression in mutual services and a generous strife in alternate acts of kindness. Our motto was ever: "One for all and all for one."

"No act can be more excellent than the consecration of the body of Christ there can be no order higher than the priesthood. So we were taught and so we believed; and so we looked upon the day of our ordination the day of days; the day in which the Lord had made; the day in which to rejoice and be glad. "This is the day which the Lord hath made; let us rejoice and be glad therein."

Year after year with unfailing regularity the anniversary brought us together. And we assembled at the festive board to recount our experiences on the mission; to recall the incidents of our seminary life and that galaxy of saintly and learned men who had labored to form in us the priestly character. I do not think that one of those occasions ever passed that the question was not asked: "I wonder which one of us four will be the first to go?"

Twenty-eight years passed away and then the dear Father Coyle, the man of childlike nature and of childlike faith was called to his reward. He was the first of the Johns to go. Another ten years went by and Father John McGinty, beloved for his gentleness, obeyed the summons and we laid him to rest in the cemetery beside his friend.

And now as most of us know Father John Sullivan has for a long time been waiting at the portal of death. He has for a long time been only a shadow of his former self. In the first years of his ministry he was strong, energetic and with a fine capacity for work. I remember well his labors in St. Patrick's parish in the early eighties. At the time to which I allude that parish numbered fifteen thousand Catholic souls. It

REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE IN SESSION

The Republican county committee held an enthusiastic meeting at the court house last Saturday afternoon. A speaking campaign in the county was arranged. John MacBain, A. P. Bellisle, Edward Hoag and Horace Amphlett were appointed a committee to make all the necessary arrangements. Samuel M. Shortridge, the next United States senator, will make a speech during the campaign in the county and that speech will be delivered at San Mateo in about two weeks. It is the intention of the county committee to make this the big demonstration of the campaign. It is believed that Mr. Shortridge will receive a 2 to 1 vote over his opponent in the county, but the county committee is leaving nothing undone to make it a success. Mr. Shortridge's big vote in his home county.

The committee started out two men on Monday with literature and display cards. The entire county will be billed with Harding, Coolidge, Shortridge and Free cards. Every fence and tree will be labeled with these cards. One of the big burdens of the committee is to see that every voter goes to the polls on the day of election. A system is being formulated whereby this will be made comparatively easy. It is hoped that 95 per cent of the voters will be brought out on that day.

REID FATALLY INJURED IN A RUNAWAY

Harold D. Reid, resident of Dunbarton Oaks, Redwood City, is dead at his home here from injuries received at Los Gatos, when his horse ran away, throwing him to the ground, the wagon passing over his body and breaking his back.

Reid had gone to Los Gatos to secure some fruit and was driving on the road when his horse became frightened at some object in an adjoining orchard and got beyond control. He was brought home to Redwood immediately after the accident and later he succumbed to his injuries.

In addition to his widow residing in Redwood City, Reid leaves two sons and a daughter living in Nebraska, was formerly his home.

The funeral will take place Monday morning from the James Crowe Company at 10 o'clock. Interment will be in Cypress Lawn cemetery.

SUPERVISOR FRANCIS IS DANGEROUSLY ILL

The many friends of Joseph M. Francis, the popular supervisor of the fourth township, throughout the county, will be pained to learn that he is rapidly sinking and may not survive the night. He is at Adler's sanitarium in San Francisco. The members of his family are at his bedside awaiting the end.

Mr. Francis is one of the most popular officials in the county. He has held the office of supervisor for 12 years. At the late primary election he had no opposition. Mr. Francis was chairman of the board of supervisors for one year. No man in the county has more friends than Joe Francis. His death will be a severe shock to all.

Mrs. Simmons, his sister, was called to his bedside yesterday. His death may occur at any moment.

LILLIAN MARTENS AND JOSEPH ROSS TO BE MARRIED

The marriage of Miss Lillian Martens, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martens, to Joseph Ross, son of Dr. J. L. Ross, will be solemnized this evening at the Congregational church by the Rev. C. H. Stevens. The affair, which is probably the most elaborate ever held in this church, will be attended by a large number of guests.

The wedding supper will be served at the Martens' home in Wellesley Park. A San Francisco caterer will serve it. An orchestra from the city will also be in attendance. Besides local guests there will be many out of town people present. The pretty bride-to-be is a charming young woman with a host of friends and admirers on the peninsula. Young Ross is an exemplary lad who enjoys the friendship of a large circle of friends in this section.

LENDALL GRAY HOME SOLD

The Lendall Gray place on Selby lane, consisting of eight acres and attractive improvements, was sold this week to Dr. Howard, a retired San Francisco physician. The sum of $35,000 was paid for the property. The realty was owned by Mrs. Hall, formerly Mrs. Lendall Gray. It is one of the prettiest homes in that section of the county.

FRED ROBINSON KILLED IN AIRPLANE ACCIDENT

Last Monday Fred Robinson, son of Mrs. Harry Hallett of this city, was killed somewhere near Hazelhurst, Pa. while en route as a pilot of a United States government mail plane. A heavy fog hung over the Susquehanna river. Robinson's plane struck a wire extending over the river and he was plunged to the earth. He died a short time later.

Last April Robinson met with a bad accident while in charge of an aerial mail plane for the government. He fell a distance of 1,000 feet at the Heller field, Newark, N. J. He had his nose broken and his right leg fractured, besides suffering internal injuries. After his recovery he again began his duties for the government. Young Robinson was a native of Montana, aged 23 years. As a mere boy he came to Belmont, where he grew to manhood, and attended the high school at San Mateo. During the world war he was a second lieutenant in the aviation branch of the service and was an instructor at the aviation field at San Diego.

Mrs. Hallett who only received meagre news of the accident, is prostrated with grief over the death of her son. She has the sympathy of the community in her sad bereavement.

Mrs. Alfred Boerner of Lobeck, Kern county, is a sister of the dead aviator.

The remains were shipped from Pennsylvania yesterday and will arrive here early next week. Interment will be made in Cypress Lawn cemetery.

DLYDE A. HUNT KILLED IN AN AUTO COLLISION

The remains of Clyde A. Hunt, killed in an automobile collision near Selby lane on the state highway last Monday night, were shipped on Wednesday to the residence of his widow, Mrs. Edith Hunt, Santa Cruz.

The accident occurred by Hunt's attempt to pass a machine driven by E. D. Ritchey of Palo Alto. Hunt turned out too quickly and in consequence struck the side of one of the buses of the Rapid Transit Company, turning it over. The five passengers in the bus were badly shaken up, but none were seriously injured. Hunt was killed almost instantly. He was driving a small roadster.

A coroner's jury has exonerated the driver of the bus, Harry Cookson. It is believed that Hunt was at fault.

BOREL RANCH SOLD

The well-known Antoine Borel ranch at San Gregorio, consisting of 1,050 acres, was sold this week to a rancher at that place. The sale was made by H. C. Tuchen and it is said the amount received for the property was $50,000. The ranch was formerly owned by the late Alexander Gordon. It is one of the finest farms on the coast. In years gone by vast crops of grain were yielded by the rich soil. The sale is one of the largest made in that section this year.

Leaving out all "Camouflage," here's a few pleasant facts for you. High School isn't all study. It's pretty much a society proposition too, and to be popular with "the bunch," get in on all dances and be a general all 'round "regular fellow," you've got to dress the part. Don't make much difference how much you want to pay, or how little, we'll see that you get a mighty classy suit that "looks like a million dollars," fits without a wrinkle and that will stay in shape! FOR VICE-PRESIDENT—

FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR
SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE

FOR CONGRESS 8th DISTRICT
ARTHUR M. FREE

SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE
Candidate for United States Senator

ARTHUR M. FREE IS YOUNG AND ENERGETIC MAN

Arthur M. Free, the Republican nominee for congress in this district, is a young man of ability, honesty and a man of mature judgment. He will make an ideal congressman, one whom the district may keep in the house of representatives for years as he will grow better and more influential with years. Every Republican who votes for Harding and Coolidge should vote for the Republican congressman. The Republican president can do nothing unless the house and senate is in sympathy with him. It behooves every Republican to give Mr. Free every support.

RAYMOND BENJAMIN WAS APPOINTED PRESIDENT OF STATE COMMITTEE

The re-appointment of Raymond Benjamin as chairman of the state Republican Central Committee meets with the approval of every Republican in California. The welfare of the party is in good hands. With such a leader success must come to the party in November. Mr. Benjamin has demonstrated his leadership in the able manner in which he has conducted past campaigns. He is a young man of ability and a natural leader of men. He is tactful but at the same time is vigorous in conducting a political campaign. The Republicans of the state may be congratulated in having such a man at the helm, particularly at this time when a strong man is needed to lead the party to success.

PHILAN NOT A STRONG MAN

The senatorial contest of 1914 furnishes interesting figures. It shows that James D. Philan was elected when the Republican party was divided. He received 279,396 votes while Joseph Knowland who ran on the Republican ticket received 254,159 and Francis Heney who was the progressive candidate got 255,232. The progressive and Republican candidates received a total of 509,391 votes or nearly double that of Mr. Philan. This year the Republican party is united and will vote as a unit for Mr. Shortridge, the Republican candidate. By this it may be seen what a difficult task Mr. Philan has to secure the toga this year.

PERT POINTS IN MR. SHORTRIDGE'S SPEECH AT SACRAMENTO

Samuel M. Shortridge sounded the key-note of the California campaign at Sacramento recently before the biennial Republican State Convention meeting at the Capitol building. Shortridge laid down the principles upon which the party will make its fight for success at the polls in November. He said:

"We are met as representatives of the Republicans of California, to formulate a platform of political principles and policy, to elect a State Committee to nominate Presidential electors. These important duties performed, we shall ask for the ratification of our work by the people of California. Fear not the people's verdict. Their handwriting is already on the wall. The democratic party has been tried again and again and found wanting.

"We shall win because we deserve to win—because thoughtful men and women everywhere are convinced of the imperative necessity for a change of the national administration. We shall win because the nation is sick unto death of Wilsonism, which, represented in the Wilson Free Trade Law of 1893, bankrupted the people, and represented in the Wilson League of Nations, threatens to surrender the independence of America.

"We shall win because the people are highly resolved to do away with autocracy in America—with one-man control—with dictatorship, with much that savors of sceptre, crown and throne—with all men who travel and look abroad for applause, rather than remain at home to earn by deeds a free peoples' love—with everything that is now and forever to be America unashamed and unafraid.

"We shall win because the people are free and believe in our form of government and reverence the Constitution, and are determined to keep and perpetuate the United States of America free and independent, free and independent politically, free and independent industrially.

"We shall win because we are nationalists, not internationalists; because we think of America first, and insist that our destiny as a nation shall be shaped and controlled by and for the people of America.

"We shall win in California because we are unalterably against Wilson, and his pretended League of Nations which means to us national suicide. "We shall win in California because we are uncompromisingly opposed to the Underwood Free Trade Tariff Law, which, if not speedily repealed and replaced by the genuine Republican Tariff Law, will destroy our industries and bankrupt and beggar our people.

"We shall win in California because we are determined and pledged to stop now immigration into our state and country of unassimilable peoples, including Japanese, and this we shall do by treaty, duty and speedily negotiated, or by statute, duty and speedily enacted.

"We shall win in California because we have always approved and supported the wise and just and humanitarian laws enacted under the valiant leadership of Governor, now Senator, Johnson—laws which have for their object, and which have achieved their object, of bettering the condition of men and women who toiled, and at the same time encouraging and safeguarding the right of all legitimate industries within our state.

AMERICA MUST BE SELF-SUSTAINING

Dr. Albert H. Snowden, in the September "World's Markets" declares that Australia will soon be the "last great West," and that the world will have to turn to that insular continent for its supplies of meats and wool. By reason of climatic conditions which cut overhead expenses in the construction of barns, storing and feeding of hay, etc., there is an astonishing reduction in the overhead expense of sheep and stock-raising as compared with costs in the United States," says Dr. Snowden and he outlines the advantages possessed by Australia in the marketing of wool, fruits, wheat, vegetables, etc. The democratic policy would urge our purchase from Australia of such products, permitting the home industries to languish because we could buy more cheaply from that source. But would we not be in a pretty fix if our own supplies were diminished by free trade with Japan would be for Japanese blockade of American trade?

Democrats are going on record against admission of Japanese to the United States, but they favor the free admission of the products of the Japanese labor employed in Japan.

Which is the greater evil? The Republicans propose not only to keep out the coolie labor but to impose an import tax upon products of coolie labor sufficient to equal the difference in cost of production here and in Asia. The Republican policy is consistent. The Republican policy is wholly American; the democratic policy is wholly international—like the League of Nations scheme.—San Bernardino Sun.

ARE WE THINKING AHEAD?

Never before has there been greater need of clear, cool conservative thinking in our political life as at the present time. Europe is a seething mass of unrest, brought on by jealousy, arrogance, cruelty and unfairness, practiced for centuries. Peace will come, to break into war again after a period of recuperation.

The United States of America has been, and is, the "land of the free and the home of the brave." It has assimilated the best of other lands. Does it want the worst to be found in foreign lands? Does it want foreign entanglements? Has it need of its own youth for the cultivation of peaceful pursuits, and the upbuilding of its own nation?

Shall this youth be sacrificed without the consent of the people themselves? Let us think hard about old history, and history not so old. Let us read and ponder well. Let no demagogue influence us by distorted views of historical facts. Calling burning political question "mere jokes" should make us skeptical of all such campaign speeches.

In sharp contrast to this is Harding's speech. His speech shows that he appreciates the wisdom of conference with experienced minds irrespective of party. It is kindly too, and full of feeling "simpatico" is the word which expresses the peculiar kindness that comes from its straight forward simplicity. These are the reasons why we are for Harding, and why we have organized the Harding-Coolidge club with memberships in every Assembly District, and in every precinct in each Assembly district of the state.

MAKE THE UNITED STATES SENATE REPUBLICAN

The defeat of Samuel M. Shorridge may mean the loss of the United States Senate to the Republican party. The majority in the Senate is very few and the defeat of one candidate may mean that the democratic party may have the next Senate. The Republicans of California are not going to make that mistake, they are sure to vote for the Republican standard bearer, Samuel M. Shorridge.

Every Republican is urged to vote for Arthur M. Free for congress. He is an able young man worthy of the suffrage of every voter in the Eighth District.

Samuel M. Shorridge is a protectionist, for that reason Republicans are urged to vote for him.

Every Republican is supposed to do his duty in November by voting for Samuel M. Shorridge for the United States Senate.

If the people want a Republican administration they will vote for the nominees of that party for the Senate and Congress. Vote for Shorridge and Free.

A democratic Senator from California will have no influence with the next administration at Washington, it is going to be Republican.

Vote for Samuel M. Shorridge and make the Senate safe for the Republican party. Harding cannot do anything with a democratic Congress. Republicans remember this.

SENATOR HARDING'S ATTITUDE

A recent interview with Senator Harding makes clear that his attitude towards labor is liberal and just. Senator Harding declared against a scale of wages that represented a bare living in any calling. It is his view that American industry can provide, and should provide compensation according to American standards, to acquire homes, and to save money for old age.

It appears that the views of Senator Harding as to the rights of labor coincide perfectly with the views of labor itself—Pasadena (Calif.) Post.

MANY WILL CAST THEIR FIRST BALLOT FOR HARDING

This year thousands upon thousands of men will vote who have never voted for president before and probably hundreds of thousands of women who have never voted at all. It is only fair to assume that they will vote for the candidates who will serve the country best. They are anxious for enlightenment in regard to the qualifications of the nominees. It is interesting to observe that the democratic candidates for president and vice-president apparently have very little respect for the intelligence of the voters whose support they seek. Otherwise they would make an appeal to intelligence; but instead of doing so, they resort to vituperation of their political opponents, which has thus far constituted the most prominent feature of their platform oratory.

It is a favorable sign for the Republicans that the Wilsonian democrats resort to this kind of oratory so early in the campaign.—Santa Barbara Press.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT—
CALVIN COOLIDGE

FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR
SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE

FOR CONGRESS 8th DISTRICT
ARTHUR M. FREE

SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE
Candidate for United States Senator

ARTHUR M. FREE IS YOUNG AND ENERGETIC MAN

Arthur M. Free, the Republican nominee for congress in this district, is a young man of ability, honesty and a man of mature judgment. He will make an ideal congressman, one whom the district may keep in the house of representatives for years as he will grow better and more influential with years. Every Republican who votes for Harding and Coolidge should vote for the Republican congressman. The Republican president can do nothing unless the house and senate is in sympathy with him. It behooves every Republican to give Mr. Free every support.

RAYMOND BENJAMIN WAS APPOINTED PRESIDENT OF STATE COMMITTEE

The re-appointment of Raymond Benjamin as chairman of the state Republican Central Committee meets with the approval of every Republican in California. The welfare of the party is in good hands. With such a leader success must come to the party in November. Mr. Benjamin has demonstrated his leadership in the able manner in which he has conducted past campaigns. He is a young man of ability and a natural leader of men. He is tactful but at the same time is vigorous in conducting a political campaign. The Republicans of the state may be congratulated in having such a man at the helm, particularly at this time when a strong man is needed to lead the party to success.

PHELAN NOT A STRONG MAN

The senatorial contest of 1914 furnishes interesting figures. It shows that James D. Phelan was elected when the Republican party was divided. He received 279,896 votes while Joseph Knowland who ran on the Republican ticket received 254,159 and Francis Heney who was the progressive candidate got 255,232. The progressive and Republican candidates received a total of 509,391 votes or nearly double that of Mr. Phelan. This year the Republican party is united and will vote as a unit for Mr. Shortridge, the Republican candidate. By this it may be seen what a difficult task Mr. Phelan has to secure the toga this year.

PERT POINTS IN MR. SHORTRIDGE'S SPEECH AT SACRAMENTO

Samuel M. Shortridge sounded the key-note of the California campaign at Sacramento recently before the biennial Republican State Convention meeting at the Capitol building. Shortridge laid down the principles upon which the party will make its fight for success at the polls in November. He said:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention:

"We are met as representatives of the Republicans of California, to formulate a platform of political principles and policy, to elect a State Committee to nominate Presidential electors. These important duties performed, we shall ask for the ratification of our work by the people of California. Fear not the people's verdict. Their handwriting is already on the wall. The democratic party has been tried again and again and found wanting.

"We shall win because we deserve to win—because thoughtful men and women everywhere are convinced of the imperative necessity for a change of the national administration. We shall win because the nation is sick unto death of Wilsonism, which, represented in the Wilson Free Trade Law of 1893, bankrupted the people, and now, represented in the Wilson League of Nations, threatens to surrender the independence of America. "We shall win because the people are highly resolved to do away with autocracy in America—with one-man control—with dictatorship, with much that savors of sceptre, crown and throne—with all men who travel and look abroad for applause, rather than remain at home to earn by deeds a free people's love—with everything that is now and forever to be America unshamed and unafraid.

"We shall win because the people are free and believe in our form of government and reverence the Constitution, and are determined to keep and perpetuate the United States of America free and independent, free and independent politically, free and independent industrially.

"We shall win because we are nationalists, not internationalists; because we think of America first, and insist that our destiny as a nation shall be shaped and controlled by and for the people of America.

"We shall win in California because we are unalterably against Wilson and his pretended League of Nations which means to us national suicide. "We shall win in California because we are uncompromisingly opposed to the Underwood Free Trade Tariff Law, which, if not speedily repealed and replaced by the genuine Republican Tariff Law, will destroy our industries and bankrupt and beggar our people.

"We shall win in California because we are determined and pledged to stop now immigration into our state and country of unassimilable peoples, including Japanese, and this we shall do by treaty, duty and speedily enacted.

"We shall win in California because we have always approved and supported the wise and just and humanitarian laws enacted under the valiant leadership of Governor, now Senator, Johnson—laws which had for their object, and which have achieved their object, of bettering the condition of men and women who toiled, and at the same time encouraging and safeguarding the right of all legitimate industries within our state.

AMERICA MUST BE SELF-SUSTAINING

Dr. Albert H. Snowden, in the September "World's Markets" declares that Australia will soon be the "last great West," and that the world will have to turn to that insular continent for its supplies of meats and wool. By reason of climatic conditions which cut overhead expenses in the construction of barns, storing and feeding of hay, etc., there is an "astounding reduction in the overhead expense of sheep and stock-raising as compared with costs in the United States," says Dr. Snowden and he outlines the advantages possessed by Australia in the marketing of wool, fruits, wheat, vegetables, etc. The democratic policy would urge our purchase from Australia of such products, permitting the home industries to languish because we could buy more cheaply from that source. But would we not be in a pretty fix if our own supplies were diminished by free trade and a war with Japan would be followed by a Japanese blockade of Australian-American trade?

DEMOCRATIC BREAKFAST FOOD

The Department of Agriculture has discovered that sawdust is a good substitute feed for cows. Other substitutes developed by the democratic administration have been unsecured paper money for gold certificates, internationalism for Americanism, arbitrary price fixing for the natural law of supply and demand, and the grossest extravagance for reasonable economy in the administration of the government. That the people are tired of substitutes and want to get back to the real thing is sufficiently demonstrated by the Maine election and the primaries in other states.

HEADS HE LOSES—
TAILS HE WIN

Cox was nominated as an anti-Wilson man. He was the favorite of the anti-Wilson faction of the democratic party. In his usual role of trying to play both ends, Cox immediately knelt at the Wilson throne and received the Wilson approval of his endorsement of the League of Nations. Now that Maine has gone on record overwhelmingly against Wilsonism, Cox begins to realize that he made a mistake in seeking the favor of an unpopular autocrat. He might fool the Tammany crowd at San Francisco, and President Wilson at the White House, but he cannot fool a very considerable number of voters during the campaign that ends November 2. He can't fool all the people all the time.

PRESS COMMENT

Cox must carry the handicap of the Wilson administration. He is nominated upon a platform that would sink the best ticket in the world.
He must stand for a stupid and squal-id spirit of internationalism, as against a veritable and aggressive Americanism. The idea that any democrat could be elected on the record of Wilson and in support of his League of Nations policy is preposterous.—Santa Cruz Sentinel.

C. C. Teague, who is the most important lemon grower in the world, says that the growers' only expectancy of future prosperity in lemons is a tariff that will enable them to compete with Italy and Sardinia. If Harding and Coolidge are defeated next November, Mr. Teague sees no hope of a profitable market for the California lemon grower.

How can any man who lives by fruits—especially citrus fruits—vote for a few or no tariff? Your vote for Harding and Coolidge is particularly urgent.—Riverside Enterprise.

If Governor Cox wants publicity of the alleged $15,000,000 slush fund of the Republican national campaign managers, he will certainly get it.
The only trouble with the arrangement from the Cox point of view is that the revelations are likely to prove him either a wilful fibber or else the dupe of some too enthusiastic democratic muckraker.

No charges have been made by Senator Harding that the Cox campaign is fully and adequately financed. The Republican nominee has been too busy resolving issues and policies and in studying the presidential situation from the angle of a man who may be entrusted with the administration, to go seeking wild scandals about the democratic national finances.—Richmond Record-Herald.

If the examination of campaign funds, their resources and uses has the effect of causing parties to raise their money honestly and moderatly, then the movement is beneficial.

But the excellent results are lost if the examination degenerates, as it seems to have done recently, into bickerings and recriminations between the two great party organizations. Important issues are often lost sight of in the confusion of this petty warfare, and many voters diverted from intelligent decisions which might have made it left uninfluenced.

Publicity is one thing. Demagogy is another. The two should never be confused.—Berkeley Times.

GOV. COX IS QUIET ON PRESIDENTIAL AUTOCRACY

Candidate Cox has a whole lot to say about the "senatorial oligarchy" trying to run the government itself but he doesn't have a blooming word to say about the "presidential autocracy" which sought to dictate for this and other countries and to the senate what they should do, when the senate is given by the constitution concurrent power in regard to treaties.

We believe that within the Republican party there is more experience, more executive and governmental ability, more hard, sound business common sense than in the democratic party, though not denying that there are worthy individuals in both. This being our view, we believe that the chances are at least better that a Republican administration would gather to its aid a better cabinet and a better class of man as a whole in governmental and executive positions high and low, than a democratic administration.—Kingsburg Recorder.

REPUBLICAN ECONOMY

The New York Annalist figures that water power development under the new water power law offers a saving of a billion dollars a year to the nation. A billion dollars is five per cent interest on $20,000,000-000. Measured in terms of income on wealth, the Water Power Law, passed by a Republican Congress added the latter amount to the resources of the country.

The sum of $500 was paid this week by the executors of the estate of the late Mortimer Sullivan to the Church of the Nativity. This was one of many bequests made by the late pioneer. The estate is about to be distributed. J. J. Murray, an old friend of the deceased, was left the greater portion of the estate which was appraised at something like $10,000.

It is believed he died intestate although his relatives are making a search for a will and may find one. The deceased was a miner and accumulated the money at the Boddy mines in Nevada. He was unmarried but leaves several nieces and nephews and two sisters in the east.

The beautiful J. B. Leonard home on Oak Grove avenue and Laurel avenue was sold this week to Mrs. R. D. Inman, a wealthy resident of Portland, Oregon, who is now touring the eastern states. The price paid for this choice property was $25,000 in cash. The sale was consummated by Mark A. McCann, the San Francisco realty broker. Mr. McCann also sold to Mrs. Inman eight acres in Atherton Acres on which she intends to erect a home within the next year. Mrs. Inman will occupy the Leonard home on December first.

—if millions of Americans had realized the above fact 25 years ago, and had consistently saved a substantial portion of their earnings, there wouldn't be so many sixty-year-old men dependent on relatives, charity or daily wages in this country today.

How much are you saving? Are you fortified for "hard times" if they should follow this unequalled period of squandering and extravagance?

Most people make no provision for the proverbial "rainy day" except—a cotton umbrella.

Our 200,000 depositors are making hay while the sun shines. They have accumulated over $130,000,000.00 which we are carefully guarding for them. A dollar will open an interest bearing account at this bank.
